

PROJECT EXTREME

The Chai Campaign was designed for the Jewish community around the world to help our teens in need. The goal of the Chai Campaign is to help defer the cost of Project Extreme programming. Our yearlong program costs over $10,000 per participant. The majority of the families in need are unable to afford even a fraction of this exorbitant cost. Without the support of the Jewish community, Project Extreme is unable to survive.

Here's our idea: When we reach our goal of 1000 people for the Chai Campaign, we will be able to help pay for 30 kids' tuitions for the year.

With your donation of only $18 a month, the future of the Jewish community is restored. Sign up for our monthly campaign and you will be a part of our life-saving work.

On behalf of the adolescents and families we serve, thank you!

YES! I would like to assist our Jewish youth at risk by making a monthly contribution.
